

Molotov Hears Eden, Bidault Call On U.S. To Stay In Europe

By PRESTON GROVER
BERLIN (U-P)—V. M. Molotov's security pact bait, already spurned by the Western foreign ministers, appeared loaded today with considerable popular appeal for West Europeans—and particularly for the French. Some nibbling may develop long after the Big Four conference ends.

French observers deemed the Soviet proposal's clause calling for the neutralization of Germany would mean fresh trouble for Foreign Minister Georges Bidault in his fight to get the six-nation European Defense Community Treaty ratified by France's balking Parliament.

Seeks Allied Split
The Soviet foreign minister's avowed aim is to do away with both that treaty, which would arm West Germans along with French, Italian, Belgian, Dutch and Luxembourg under unified command, and the 14-nation North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

In yesterday's regular meeting at West Berlin's old Allied Control Authority Building, Molotov offered Europe a 50-year collective security pact in return for expelling United States armed forces from the continent and shattering the Western alliance.

He sought to promote a European security conference at some time in the future. This proposal was certain to invite hesitant French parliamentarians—peering their opposition to traditional French fears of a revival of German militarism—to delay yet more months on EDC. And in such an interval a rising impatience could be expected in the U.S. Congress, which votes the funds that have been the backbone of Western defense.

Allies Prefer U. S.
Molotov got his answer from Britain and France in perhaps the most dramatic hour of the Big Four conference. Indirectly, "it was an answer also to warnings by Secretary of State Dulles that the United States will get out of European affairs if Europe so desires."

Bidault and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, facing Molotov across the conference table, called on the United States to stay in Europe. They said Britain and France choose to remain in NATO, of which the United States is the cornerstone.

REGULATIONS FOR FIRE TRUCK DRIVERS GIVEN; FIX SPEED LIMIT

Regulations for the drivers and radio operators of the Gettysburg Fire Department were outlined by Chief Donald Jacobs and the assistant chiefs, Donald McSherry and Donald Staub, at Wednesday evening's meeting of the firemen at the fire house.

Speed limits of all trucks were set at "not to exceed 55 miles per hour in the country and 25 in the town." The drivers were instructed to "approach the corner of Baltimore and E. Middle Sts. with caution. This rule applies not only to trucks leaving the engine house to an emergency, but also to firemen heading for the engine house in cars. Signal the officer on duty at the corner that you are a fireman and abide strictly by his return signal."

"Remember that the lives of the firemen aboard your truck are in your hands, depending constantly on your ability to handle your apparatus properly. It is far better to arrive at the emergency safely with all hands, than not to arrive at all."

Fix Order For Trucks
"Warn pedestrians and traffic of our approach by using your siren."

The chiefs pointed out that all driver-operators should be able to handle all apparatus: "All drivers must learn the operation of each pump in the department, including the portable pump, and each driver must qualify himself as driver of the rescue truck, and the operation of all lighting and life saving gear and emergency tools aboard the rescue apparatus." They added that "any driver desiring instruction on operation of any particular pump may make arrangements with any qualified operator to take any truck out any time, clearing the departure from the Engine House with any of the chiefs."

The order in which trucks will report to fires was set as: rural fire, first, No. 4 Mack pumper; second, No. 2 Rescue truck; third, No. 6 Chevrolet pumper. The order in which trucks are to respond for borough fires was listed as, first, No. 4 Mack pumper; second, No. 2 Rescue truck; third, No. 1 GMC pumper; fourth, No. 6 Chevrolet pumper; and fifth, No. 3 GMC pumper.

Rules On Ladder, Rescue Trucks
The aerial ladder truck will respond, they said, to calls at the college, seminary, county home, central business district "or at any other time the circumstances indicate need of it, without orders from a chief."

The old service truck, No. 7, if needed to accommodate firemen arriving after regular trucks have left the engine house, may be driven to the emergency, providing it is in charge of a qualified driver and provided that the circumstances indicate the need of it.

MECO Postpones Revision Of Rates

HARRISBURG (U-P)—The Public Utility Commission said yesterday the Metropolitan Edison Co., Reading, has voluntarily postponed for three months, until next May 15, a proposed rate revision to increase bills of residential customers and reduce charges to industrial and commercial users.

The utility, which furnishes service to 225,000 customers in 14 eastern counties, said it needs the extra time to prepare additional rate information requested by the commission.

The rate change originally was filed to take effect next Monday.

FIRE COMPANIES ARE CALLED TO THREE BLAZES

Three fire companies were called to as many fires in Adams County Wednesday afternoon.

Gettysburg responded at 3:20 o'clock when a 10 by 20-foot frame chicken house at the residence of Mrs. Mary McGuigan, three miles east of here on the Lincoln Highway, caught on fire from a brush blaze. The structure was empty. No estimate was made of the amount of damage.

Fairfield Fire Company was called at about 2:30 o'clock when a blaze started in a storage room on the second floor of the home of Samuel Musselman, Fairfield Station. Firemen said they could not immediately assign a cause for the fire, or make an estimate of damage. Members of the Musselman family, while downstairs smelled smoke, investigated and found clothing and other articles in the room ablaze. The room was seldom used, they said. The clothing and other articles stored in the room caused a blaze that scorched the plaster of walls adjoining.

Use Fire Radio
Fountaindale firemen at about 2 o'clock were called to a forest fire near the railroad tunnel on Jack's Mountain. About four acres of timberland burned over before the firemen could bring the blaze to a halt.

Local firemen pointed out that the county's fire-civil Defense radio system worked out well in connection with the timber blaze. Fountaindale firemen, far from a telephone, called the central station at Gettysburg to have firemen here place a call to forest rangers alerting them to stand by in connection with the blaze. Within three minutes after Fountaindale firemen found it necessary to alert the rangers, the calls had gone through. Similar service was rendered by the radio system when Cashtown fought a forest fire recently.

Here And There News Collected At Random

Current editions of nationally circulated magazines contain full page display advertisements of the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company, Boston, in natural color titled "He made history sit for his portrait."

It contains a large painting of Matthew B. Brady, Civil War photographer, standing beside a camera and tripod on a battlefield. The text follows:

"It's hard to figure sometimes what makes a man do the thing he should do, when the time for doing it comes. Take Matthew B. Brady, photographer."

There he was in 1861, all set up with two big fancy "galleries" in New York and Washington, earning fame and fortune very comfortably by taking portraits of the rich and great. Prince and President, Society Matron and Senator—only Mr. Brady would do when you wanted a photograph taken.

So what does this little Irishman do but leave all that, and go off in a wagon to live in mud and discomfort, get himself shot at, and spend a fortune for the privilege?

But a war had started between the States. And something told Matthew B. Brady that putting that war in accurate, truth-telling pictures was more important.

Court House Clock Regains Its Rich, Old Silvery Voice

The Court House clock, which stood like "some mute inglorious Milton" for many months as the hours passed and no sound was made to record their passage, has now recovered its silver-toned voice.

Wednesday final adjustments were made and a new highly specialized piece of electronic equipment "poked" the old court house bell to tell the world "what o'clock it is."

Once, in the days of old, ponderous weights, one ton each, fell slowly through space to pull chains which turned wheels, which moved cogs, which rotated other cogs which raised a hammer—large as a sledge hammer—to pound out each passing hour.

With the removal of the cog wheel and weight mechanism last fall, the clock became silent. New electric "innards" replaced the "threshing machine" mechanism that operated the clock for decades—until they wore out.

But the silently busy electric motor that ran the clock did not

"LOVE IS BASIC NEED OF LIFE" SAYS SPEAKER

"A child (or an adult) needs love most when it is most unlovable," declared the Rev. Martin H. Knutsen, vicar of the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church, in an address before the Woman's Club of Gettysburg Wednesday afternoon at the YWCA.

"Love is the basic need of life," he explained. "A parent thinks if he gives a child food, clothing and shelter, that this is sufficient for the child's survival. But an infant needs more than these things. It needs to feel that it is loved and wanted by its parents. If a child is to grow up to be an outstanding citizen it must receive something extra from its parents, something beyond food, shelter and clothing. Love is what the child needs. The more of it he gets the more alive he will become."

"I Am Not Wanted"

A mother who is distracted by the world and its activities will handle a child roughly. She may give her child every attention, feeding it, clothing it and keeping it warm. But she will do these things quickly and hurriedly and the child will come to know it. As he grows older he will think, 'I am not wanted.'

"Parents have within themselves the resources to love their children, but their needs must be met first before the child's or they will be unable to impart to the child the love it needs. These resources can be found in God."

Quoting St. John, the speaker said, "Christ first loved us; therefore we must love Him."

"Love is a response that comes to us from the outside," he said. "Parents showed us first how they loved us and we recognized it as good. The love does not come from us; it comes from God."

Studied In France
The speaker, who was introduced by Mrs. Conway S. Williams, is a graduate of Pennsylvania State University. He served for some time in the United States Navy and later studied at the Sorbonne in Paris. After completing postgraduate work at the state university, Rev. Mr. Knutsen entered the Virginia Theological Seminary. He was ordained at the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church, Gettysburg, last spring.

Mrs. Charles W. Orem, president, presided at the business session and gave a financial report. Mrs. Guile W. Lefever gave the secretary's report. (Continued on Page 7)

"RADIOSONDE" IS FOUND HERE

A balloon carrying a "radiosonde," an instrument used by the U.S. weather service to gauge atmospheric conditions and for the preparation of storm warnings, burst some 16 miles over Gettysburg late Wednesday morning and the device was found by a Hanover resident on Herr's Ridge.

Levan Gore, chauffeur for M. C. Jones, R. 3, returned the delicate weather recording device along with a bright orange parachute and fragments of a red helium balloon to the Gettysburg Post Office.

Markings indicate the balloon was released at the Greater Pittsburgh Airport Weather Bureau Station, Wednesday morning. It came to earth hours later behind the Herr's Ridge home where LeGore was attracted by the brightly-hued "chute."

While in flight the radiosonde acted as a radio transmitter of the temperature, pressure and air moisture through which it passed. The balloon automatically burst at the height of 16 miles and the instrument floated to earth on the attached parachute.

Reading matter attached to the radiosonde requested the finder: "If found in the United States mail to a U. S. Post Office or hand to your rural carrier."

Penn Ceramic Files Objections To Suit

Penn Ceramic Manufacturing Co., Inc., Wednesday, filed with the prothonotary a preliminary objection to the assumpt action by the Franklin Research Distributors, Inc., of Philadelphia, for nonpayment of merchandise.

Penn Ceramic claims the plaintiff, Franklin Research Distributors, have failed to state who made the request for the merchandise on behalf of the defendant; whether the person acting for the defendant was authorized to make the request and who agreed to pay the price stated by the plaintiff.

FIREMAN HURT, $5,000 DAMAGE IN FIRE TODAY AT EMECO FACTORY

Damage amounted to about $5,000 and a Hanover fireman was injured when fire broke out in the Emeco Manufacturing Corporation plant at Elm Ave., Hanover, about 10:20 o'clock this morning.

McSherrytown and Hanover fire companies, with seven pieces of apparatus, responded when a spark from a motor caused a fire to start in the exhaust from a paint booth on the first floor, burned through to the second floor and then to the roof. Hanover's aerial equipment was used.

Workmen Flee Smoke
Richard Biddle was the Hanover fireman injured. He was removed to the Hanover Hospital by ambulance about noon and x-rays were being taken this afternoon to determine the extent of the injuries.

With the flames burning through a section adjoining a large storage section filled with inflammable acids, firemen were fearful at first that the conflagration would prove more disastrous than actually occurred.

Smoke filled the plant, sending Emeco employees scurrying from the structure and driving out employees of the Carlisle Shoe Co., R. S. Pitts Manufacturing Co. and the Hanover Wood Heat Co., all of which have establishments in the block long, two-story brick structure which once housed the Long Furniture Co. The building is owned by William Bridgell, Hanover.

Use Gas Masks
The plant is one of three plants of the Emeco Corporation in McSherrytown and Hanover.

The plant that burned manufactures upholstered furniture and William Hoagland, vice president of the company, said no estimate of actual damage could be made until it is determined how much cloth may have been too badly damaged for use.

Firemen used gas masks in entering the structure because of the intense smoke.

H. S. ATHLETIC TOURNAMENTS ARE DEFENDED

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Assn., ruling body of Pennsylvania school sports, today took issue with the state branch of Secondary School Principals which questioned the educational value and justification of state athletic tournaments.

In a resolution adopted at the December meeting and made public today, the PIAA declared:

"We believe that financing the PIAA in part from championships has no harmful effects since eight of our championships are conducted at a financial loss. Such revenues as are received come from sources which would not inure to the schools if championships were not conducted."

Will Cooperate
However, the association declared its willingness to cooperate with a joint committee of the educators "in efforts to improve the interscholastic athletic program of the high schools of Pennsylvania."

The PIAA conducts statewide championships in basketball, wrestling, swimming, track and field, tennis, golf, and rifle shooting but not in football. The annual month of March state basketball playoffs are operated at a profit.

Last October the principals' organization recommended appointment of a special committee under joint auspices "to study possible alternative means" of financing the interscholastic sports program.

"We believe that the elimination of championships would not eliminate undesirable conditions where they exist," the PIAA's answer read.

Warns GOP Against "False Security"
WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—Lt. Gov. Lloyd H. Wood, organization-backed candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, says Pennsylvania Republicans should not be lulled into "a sense of false security" in the coming election campaign.

"Let's not allow any difference that may exist between us from giving our all to the common cause," Wood said last night at a Lincoln Day dinner.

Wood, who was endorsed for the gubernatorial nomination by leaders of major GOP groups in the state, defended policies of the Eisenhower administration in his speech.

Critics of President Eisenhower, Wood said, "are misguided and oblivious to the fact that heavy taxes and huge budgets are the historic enemies of free enterprise and the employment opportunities that go with it."

88 Prisoners Will Have "Protection"

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—India announced today that the 88 Korean prisoners of war who want to go to neutral countries will be kept under military "protection" at an army cantonment near New Delhi.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said the men, who refused repatriation, were "simply being given protection until their future is settled."

"We do not consider them prisoners any longer," he declared.

The contingent—74 North Koreans, 12 Chinese and 2 South Koreans—sailed Tuesday from Inchon, Korea, with 1,600 of the 6,000 Indian troops who guarded the more than 20,000 unrepatriated POWs in the Korean demilitarized zone.

They are due in Madras Feb. 20.

Recover 6 Bodies From Plane Wreck

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Six bodies now have been recovered from the wreckage of a C47 Air Force transport plane which crashed 75 miles northeast of here last Friday after at least six other men had parachuted to safety.

Four of the six bodies have been identified positively but their names are being withheld by Air Force officials until relatives are notified. Four of the 16 passengers who started the ill-fated 275-mile flight from Anchorage to Fairbanks still are unaccounted for.

Generally good weather prevailed yesterday as rescue planes continued the search for the men who are missing but no new trace of survivors was found.

Three Perish In Albany Hotel Fire

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—At least three persons perished and six were injured early today in a fire that gutted the Eagle Hotel, about three blocks from the state's executive mansion.

Firemen said that five guests still were unaccounted for but that there apparently were no more bodies in the charred structure. At least 16 of the 28 guests were permanent residents, police said. The hotel register contained no addresses.

Charges Against Gambler Dismissed

NEW YORK (AP)—A federal judge today granted a government motion to dismiss a contempt of Congress charge against gambler Frank Erickson.

The charge grew out of Erickson's refusal to answer questions before the U. S. Senate Crime Investigation Committee in the spring of 1951.

Federal Judge John F. X. McGohy dismissed the incident, after U. S. Attorney J. Edward Lumbard explained that recent court decisions made it "impossible to convict" Erickson.

24-HOUR COMMUNIST STRIKE CALLED IN NORTH ITALY

MILAN, Italy (AP)—Half a million workers went on a Communist-ordered general strike in the northern industrial state of Lombardy today, cutting factory output and blocking some transportation. The strike was called for 24 hours.

Industry officials claimed the walkout—second major work stoppage in the Communist-dominated General Confederation of Labor's (CGIL) winter offensive for higher pay—was only 50 per cent effective in the bigger factories, with the figure even lower in the smaller plants.

Thousands of workers who decided to ignore the CGIL strike call walked to their jobs in the factories of Milan this morning as the unions succeeded in tying up regular streetcar service. Emergency buses were put into action. Two of these were stoned by strikers, the only incidents reported.

3-Hour Strike

A three-hour strike of steel and chemical workers was staged yesterday at Genoa, La Spezia and Savona along the Ligurian coast. The strike's effectiveness in the big port city of Genoa was estimated at about 90 per cent.

In yesterday's demonstration, groups of strikers tried to block roads in the industrial suburbs but were disbanded by police. One demonstrator was arrested.

The CGIL was joined by the smaller non-Communist Italian Union of Labor in the walkouts yesterday and today.

The Reds also have threatened to spread their demonstrations to the streets and squares throughout the nation in protest against the swearing in yesterday of one-time riot police boss Mario Scelba as Italy's new Christian Democrat Premier.

As interior minister under former Premier Alcide De Gasperi, Scelba created the famed flying squads of "lightning police" who succeeded in smashing a near revolt by the powerful Communists in the days before 1948.

tant than posing Mrs. Van Aster in a new party dress.

Friends and relatives argued against leaving his profitable business but, as Brady said later, "Destiny overruled me. . . I felt I had to go; a spirit in my feet said go, and I went!"

And from then on, war was never quite the same to the people back home not fighting it. For Brady's pictures of war weren't pretty like the paintings had always been. You saw the mud, the twisted, horrible bodies of the dead, the ruin and the awfulness.

All up and down the battle lines this little man in his straw hat and long linen duster drove his "Whizzit" wagon, as the soldiers called it, loaded with chemicals, tanks, glass plates, cameras and portable darkroom equipment. From Bull Run, to Antietam, to Gettysburg, he became a familiar but puzzling figure to the troops as they watched him, under fire, stand beside his big, ungainly camera while he opened the shutter and coolly counted off the seconds.

You couldn't bring a war into a studio, so he took his "studio" out to the war. And that's how Mathew Brady made history, even as he photographed it. For he was the first pictorial journalist . . . the godfather of today's news photographer and combat cameraman.

It cost Brady a fortune to lead the way. He died a poor man. But by doing the thing he should have done, when the time for doing it came, he left a rich heritage to the man with courage and a camera, who goes out to photograph the truth.

Since joining the company, Miller has received a two-year National Safety Council driving award, and is now eligible for a three-year pin. Now 45 years old, he has the distinction of being the only long-term lease operator on the Baltimore-St. Louis run.

Says Schoolboy, 14, Stabbed Classmate

POTTSVILLE, Pa.—Police in nearby St. Clair says 14-year-old David B. Thorn fatally stabbed a high school classmate last night in the climax of a day long argument. John Hovrich, also 14, a freshman at St. Clair High School, died shortly after he had been stabbed in the groin.

Schuylkill County Detective Louis P. Bruno said Thorn told him the two boys had been arguing off and on all day and that when Kovich reappeared in front of Thorn's home last night, they started again.

Shortly after, Thorn was quoted, Kovich attempted to strike Thorn with his trousers belt and Thorn stabbed him with the knife.

A formal charge was not placed pending further investigation.

NEW EXECUTION DATE SET FOR 2 MURDERERS

COLUMBIA, S. C.—A new and maybe final execution date for two convicted murderers was set yesterday by the State Supreme Court.

Lander Ray Gantt and Shelton H. Gainey, whose death sentences have been postponed by appeals for more than two years, now are scheduled to die March 5, for killing a Myrtle Beach taxicab driver in 1949.

The court set the new execution date following refusal of the U. S. Supreme Court, Feb. 1, to hear the pair's appeal.

Convicted In '51

Gantt, 32, and Gainey, 25, were convicted at Conway, S. C., in 1951 for the death of Robert D. Oliver. His bullet-riddled body was found in a West Virginia roadside ditch near Bluefield, a few days after he disappeared. Gantt and Gainey, driving Oliver's cab, were picked up soon afterward near Lock Haven, Pa.

After the State Supreme Court turned down their appeal, they sought a new trial on the ground of "after discovered evidence." Former State Sen. Ralph Gasque of Marion, their lawyer, said congealed blood in the trunk of the

IKE SIGNS BILL FOR 30 JUDGES

WASHINGTON—President Eisenhower signed into law yesterday a measure creating 30 additional judgeships, including three in Pennsylvania.

It provides for three circuit judges, 21 federal district judges and six temporary district judgeships.

Under the measure the eastern and western Pennsylvania districts get one additional judgeship each and the western district gets an added temporary judge.

Since all federal judges are appointed for life, the designation "temporary" means that the first vacancy to occur shall not be filled.

The law also provides that the present roving judge in Pennsylvania shall become permanently attached to the middle Pennsylvania district when the first vacancy occurs there.

Gantt and Gainey now appear to have no hope except a possible reprieve or commutation of their sentences to life imprisonment from Gov. James F. Byrnes.

REDS ESCAPE PROBE BY U. N.

PANMUNJOM—The neutral Nations Armistice Supervisory Commission today declined to investigate U.N. charges that the Communists are smuggling warplanes into North Korea in violation of truce terms.

An Allied spokesman said the UNRC received oral notification that the commission "could not agree to dispatch three mobile teams" to check the Allied charges. He said the commission gave no reason. It meets tomorrow.

Swedish members of the four-nation commission said they had agreed not to discuss the matter with newsmen. Other members are Switzerland, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

Maj. Gen. Julius K. Lacey, chief Allied member of the Joint Military Armistice Commission, charged Tuesday that the Reds have smuggled warplanes from China to nine North Korean fields and brought in other war materials along routes which bypass the five Red ports of entry authorized by the armistice agreement.

County Girl to Sing Lead: Five years ago Isaac Van Grove, production director of "The Romance of a People" was the maestro of the Chicago Civic Opera Company and in the company which he directed was Miss Marie Budde, soprano, of Littlestown.

Friday there was a reunion between the two artists when Mr. Van Grove announced that the leading feminine solo part in the musical and dramatic pageant, "The Romance of a People," to be presented at Philadelphia, had been assigned to Miss Budde.

Miss Budde's presence in Philadelphia was unknown to Mr. Van Grove and it was only an accidental meeting on the street that brought together again the former director and the feminine star of the Chicago Civic Opera Company.

Two Boys Made Star Scout: Robert S. Lefever and Clyde S. Little, both of Gettysburg, were elevated to the rank of Star Scout at the February session of the court of honor Thursday evening at the high school auditorium.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

RISE ABOVE IT!

One of the most inspiring of American poems is that one by Longfellow—"A Psalm of Life." It has given a spiritual lift to millions, and it has been memorized by countless numbers. I once read that it was written when the poet was recovering from a deep depression. After writing it he set it aside, and refused to have it published, but when it was, it swept the country, was recited in schools and was translated into many languages. Many a great leader today can recall reading it, and memorizing it, in his youth.

All of us at times have experienced a depression of spirit. Longfellow's poem has helped us to Rise Above It and "learn to labor and to wait." We may know that "growing pains" are at work when we feel low and discouraged. With faith and courage we can be assured that better days are ahead.

It was while John Howard Payne was in a hotel in Paris, alone and homesick, that he was inspired to write one of the most beloved songs in the world—"Home, Sweet Home." Great crowds have been brought to tears during its singing by great artists. There's a line in the Bible that has always inspired me. It reads: "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning."

The time of all times NOT to give up is when you are despondent and discouraged. Rise Above It! It was during such a time that W. E. Henley wrote his immortal "Invites," in which he said that he was the Captain of his soul. He was in a hospital at the time and was threatened with the loss of his leg. But Henley triumphed—and so can we! No matter what the circumstance, we can Rise Above It and be, with Henley, the master of our fate.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Intimate Companion" Protected, 1954, George Matthew Adams Service

Just Folks

THIS FOREVER
Manners and customs and habits change.

Time makes common what once was strange.
But men, so long as the world shall be,
Will cherish and battle for liberty.

Life doesn't run in a rigid groove.
Machines and method men may improve.
But freedom and justice and truth and right
Will never be bettered by tyrant might.

Youth won't do as we used to do.
From the old it turns to the better new.
But, whatever else time and change may bring,
To the dream of freedom mankind will cling.

FRESH CHARGES ARE HURLED AT THE DEMOCRATS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fresh senatorial charges that Democrats had consorted with Communists indicated today President Eisenhower's advice to Republicans to soften their political blows may be ignored outside his own Cabinet and staff.

Reiterating his characterization of Democratic administrations as "20 years of treason," Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) said he will not change his tactics to win Democratic support for parts of Eisenhower's program.

"The price is too high," he told a Lincoln Day audience of some 6,000 persons in San Mateo, Calif., last night. Referring to the Democrats, he declared that "we can't whitewash them or we would be guilty of a crime worse than theirs."

Only "Giving The Facts" McCarthy and Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.), insisting they are only reciting the facts, said they intend to continue to do so.

Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell of the Democratic National Committee said at Portland, Ore., that Eisenhower did not go far enough when he said he would advise his official family to avoid extreme partisanship.

Eisenhower said the times are too serious for such partisanship. Sen. Monroney (D-Okla.) said the President "failed to meet the issue." He said, "We don't mind the extreme partisanship, but it is the extreme treason" which he said some GOP speakers have been attributing to Democrats.

The President told his news conference yesterday he cheerfully admits he needs Democratic support for some parts of his legislative program, but he added he isn't much of a partisan and knows of no way he can stop this sort of thing except among members of his official family.

McCarthy told newsmen in San Francisco, ahead of his speech in suburban San Mateo: "I intend to continue giving to the American people all the facts . . . It isn't abuse to tell what's going on. When it hurts, the Democrats scream . . . It is our party's duty to expose the details of 20 years of treason."

Similarly, Jenner said at New Castle, Ind., that "I propose to tell the truth regardless of politics."

Didn't Refer To Ike In his Lincoln Day talk, Jenner made no reference to the President's remarks but he said: "Don't let anyone tell you communism will not be an issue in the coming campaign. It must and will continue to be until we get the rats out of government."

Eisenhower said last year he hopes that any fear of Reds "actively undermining" the government will have vanished by November's congressional elections.

Jenner told his audience that by CWA in Arendtsville were listed as follows: 104 home owners and 17 tenants. The population is 379 adults, 45 school children, and 26 children of pre-school age. There are 38 residents who have taught school and 15 who are now teaching. Unemployed in the borough number 51. There are 57 brick houses, 54 frame and two stucco houses, 27 with shingle roof, 25 with slate, 50 with metal and 11 asbestos roofs. 111 homes are equipped with electricity and water; 56 have telephones and there are 67 with bathrooms.

Born Hairless, Bull Will Get Winter Coat

ROCKY HILL, Conn. (AP)—Come winter, Pinky will be a bull in sheep's clothing. Pinky was born without hair, something that happens to one bull out of every 100,000. Experts say he will be hairless for good.

Said its owner, Harry Hayes: "We are planning to have a sheepskin coat made for him for the winter. He certainly can't go out in the cold like that."

while Americans were fighting in Korea. "their victory was being thrown away by men high in the (Truman) administration who were friends or allies or willing appeasers of the Soviet destroyers."

Under GOP Auspices Both he and McCarthy were speaking under auspices of the Republican National Committee, which Eisenhower said ought to observe the rule of moderation he voiced.

At Parkersburg, W.Va., Sen. John Marshall Butler (R-Md.) blamer previous Democratic administrations for the Communist capture of China. Declaring that "China need never have fallen," he blamed Harry Dexter White, described as a spy by Atty. Gen. Brownell, and others for decisions he said delayed for four years aid voted to the Nationalists in 1942.

While some Democrats in Congress applauded Eisenhower's remarks, Sen. Gillette (D-Iowa) said, too, that the President didn't go far enough.

LONGSHOREMEN ACCEPT RAISE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A two-year contract providing for a 10-cent hourly package increase was accepted yesterday by the Independent International Longshoremen's Assn. (ILA) representing some 5,000 port workers here, in Chester and at Wilmington, De.

The contract is with the Philadelphia Marine Trade Assn., which represent stevedoring and shipping firms in the area.

ILA Regional Vice President James T. Mook said the vote of acceptance was about 10-1. Eight cents of the increase is in wages, raising the hourly rate to $2.35.

Mook said also that under terms of the contract, retroactive to Oct. 1, 1953, any raises granted New York longshoremen above the 10-cent package here, would be incorporated automatically in the new contract.

The contract also formalizes the duties of the Rev. Dennis J. Comey, a Jesuit priest, who has been unofficial port arbitrator for many years. Father Comey, director of St. Joseph's College Institute of Industrial Relations, has had extraordinary powers in negotiating settlements as a result of a letter

Charlie Chaplin's Wife Turns British

LONDON (AP)—Britain counted American-born Oona O'Neill Chaplin among its newest citizens today. She renounced her allegiance to the United States, which won't readmit her aging film comedian husband Charlie Chaplin, until he satisfactorily answers accusations of Communist sympathies and "grave moral charges."

Later the British-born Chaplin, who despite 40 years in Hollywood never surrendered his original citizenship, told a news conference at their hotel:

"I'm very proud to announce my wife is now a British citizen." "This is one of my proudest moments," echoed Chaplin. He announced last April he would never return to America, where, he charged, he had been the "object of lies and vicious reactionary groups."

GHS Invades Waynesboro Friday While Junior High Engages Cyclones Here

Gettysburg High's Warriors invade Waynesboro Friday evening for a South Penn League engagement with Tom Cross and his Waynesboro dribblers. The Warriors lost to Coach Harry Pure's outfit here during the first half 69-57 and will be out for revenge.

Luther Sachs' Junior High cagers will be at home Friday night with the Waynesboro Cyclones. Like the Senior High outfit, they will be seeking revenge for an earlier season setback at Waynesboro 32-23. The Jayvee teams will meet at 6:45.

Cross, the 6-7 Waynesboro center, tabbed 31 points against the Warriors here and if the Porney-men are to be successful Friday they will have to keep him under control. The Warriors turned in a good performance despite bowing to Hershey here Tuesday and a continuation of that brand of ball may produce an upset.

The big game in the league Friday is slated at Chambersburg where the first half champions will be host to Carlisle, currently tied with Hershey for the second half lead with a 3-0 mark. Chambersburg is a game off the pace with a 2-1 log. Hershey is expected to have little trouble at Mechanicsburg while Hanover figures to easily dispose of invading Shippensburg.

County Program
The Adams County League picture probably will remain unchanged Friday with the Biglerville-Bolling Springs game next Monday at Bolling Springs settling the issue.

Bolling Springs, with 11 wins and no defeats, should win at East Berlin Friday while Biglerville (10-1) is expected to win handily over invading New Oxford. Biglerville's loss was to Bolling Springs on the Canners' floor.

York Springs should have little trouble with visiting Newville and Littlestown is a top favorite over Fairfield for its game at Littlestown.

York Springs, East Berlin and Littlestown are in a hot race for first division berths to qualify for the league playoffs on February 25 and 28.

Girls' teams will play preliminaries to the boys' contests Friday evening. Bolling Springs is also unbeaten in that division with a 5-0 record. Littlestown is second with a 4-1 mark.

Delone Catholic plays at Mt. Carmel Catholic in a Central Penn Catholic League game Friday.

COAL TWP. HI AGAIN IS 1ST TO CLINCH TITLE

HARRISBURG (AP)—For the second straight year Coal Twp. High's basketball team is the first in the state to clinch a Class A league season championship and state playoff berth.

The Northumberland County quintet, although owning one of the state's best records (20-1), actually backed into its third consecutive Keystone Conference title Tuesday. The Idle Purple Demons were assured top rating when Shamokin bumped off runnerup Kulpmont to put Coal three games in front of Berwick and Kulpmont with only two left to play.

The title is the sixth in nine years for coal and qualifies the Demons to play in next month's Dist. 4 eliminations, probably against Williamsport, the one team to beat them, and Bloomsburg. Last season, after running up a 17 game winning streak (snapped by Williamsport) Coal was eliminated from the playoffs in district competition by Old Forge. Its season mark was 23-2.

Williamsport Sidetracked
This year Coach Joe Daminick's crew, powered by two stars—Fran Gotaski and Karl Olley—ran up 18 victories before bowing to Williamsport. They have a return match at Coal scheduled March 2.

At the same time Williamsport's bid for a Dist. 4 playoff berth was temporarily sidetracked at Allentown. Allentown, always a strong contender in the state eliminations, turned the tables on the Millionaires with a 16 point winning margin, the exact reverse of an earlier game at Williamsport. It was only the second defeat for Williamsport in 15 games.

The Millionaires, one of the state's two top independent teams, need one more triumph to qualify for the playoffs.

The ranks of the state's unbeaten fives were thinned by one when St. Clair downed Mahanoy Twp., 62-55, administering Mahanoy Twp.'s first defeat after 15 wins this year. The result gives St. Clair command in the second half North Schuylkill League race and could have decided the final outcome.

Last month Mahanoy Twp., first half victor, beat St. Clair, 58-51 but since then St. Clair has been unstoppable. The Mahanoy Twp. loss shattered Pennsylvania's longest all winning streak at 19 straight. The Purple Larks won four in a row to close out last season.

COUNTY SPORTS FEDERATION IS RANKED SECOND

Adams County Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs, with five affiliated units and a total paid membership of 1,135 in the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs, was the second best organized county unit in the Southern Division of the state in 1953, according to Joseph H. Barkley, Punxsutawney, president of the PFSC.

With a paid membership of 1,135 against 5,595 resident hunting licenses sold within the county during the same period of time the organizational rating stood at 20.29 per cent. Ratings of the other county groups in the Southern Division, as listed on the state report, were: Juniata, 24.36; Franklin, 18.33; York, 15.61; Lancaster, 12.14; Dauphin, 8.93; Lebanon, 6.81; Perry and Mifflin tied at 6.55; and Cumberland, 5.11.

Wentz Heads Group
Wilbur Wentz, Hanover R. 3, was listed in the state directory as president of the Adams County Federation during 1953. Other active officers were: M. S. Warren, New Oxford R. 1, vice president; R. L. Crabbs, New Oxford R. 1, treasurer; Edward Fuhrman Jr., McSherrystown, secretary; Paul Noel, New Oxford R. 1, delegate to the division and state conventions, and Paul Warnick, Hanover R. 3, alternate.

Individual clubs and their memberships last year were: Green Springs Rod and Gun Club, 345; East Berlin, 227; McSherrystown Fish and Game Protective Association, 250; Nu Ox Rod and Gun Club, 190; and York Springs Rod and Gun Club, 100.

The State Federation with its reported 943 affiliated clubs and a paid membership of 187,791 was rated as the largest group of organized conservationists in the nation. The 1953 roster showed a gain of 2,469 over the previous year when the PFSC had 185,382.

DELONE EDGES LANCASTER "5" IN OVERTIME

A field goal by Captain Ruby Bair in the extra three-minute overtime period gave the Delone Catholic High dribblers a thrilling 57-55 over Lancaster Catholic on the latter's court Wednesday evening in a Central Penn Catholic League game.

Bair's winning toss climaxed an uphill battle for the Squires who trailed 35-28 at half time and 48-43 going into the final quarter.

Jude Smith connected on a push shot to deadlock the count at 55-55 moments before the regulation game ended.

Smith, Bair and Jack Codori sparked the Squires attack with Butz topping Lancaster with 18.

The Lancaster reserves eked out a 28-26 decision in the preliminary.

Delone next plays at Mt. Carmel Catholic Friday evening in another league game.

ORIOLES BUY V. BICKFORD FROM BRAVES

NEW YORK (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles, anxious to make a good impression in the American League after an absence of 50 years, are going all out for a "new look" in 1954.

Pitcher Vern Bickford was purchased by the Orioles yesterday from the Milwaukee Braves of the National League for an undisclosed sum. As part of the deal, Baltimore also sold Charles White Jr., a catcher from its San Antonio farm team, to the Braves.

This was the Orioles' second major deal in less than a week. They obtained outfielder Sam Mele and infielder Neil Berry from the Chicago White Sox last Friday in exchange for outfielder Johnny Groth and infielder Johnny Lipon.

Have 18 On Roster Now
The Orioles also signed Frank Fanovich to bring their list of contented players to 18. The 31-year-old southpaw hurler was acquired with pitcher Joe Coleman from the Athletics during the winter in exchange for moundsman Bob Cain.

Other signings yesterday included: outfielder Harry Simpson and catcher Joe Ginsberg, Indians; first baseman Joe Adcock, Braves; outfielder Bob Nieman, Tigers; pitcher Larry Jansen, Giants; pitcher Steve Riddick and outfielder Stan Palys, Phils; pitcher Bill Powell and catcher Dick Kinman, Redlegs; pitcher Jim Willis, Cubs; infielder Curtis Roberts, Pirates; and infielder Jim Brideweser, Yanks.

In Oklahoma City, pitching ace Allie Reynolds of the Yanks revealed that he had rejected the club's second contract offer. The Super Chief, reportedly holding out for $40,000, commented: "I won't say I play baseball for the money—just the amount."

FOOTBALL'S IVY LEAGUE TO BE REALITY IN '56

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
NEW YORK (AP)—Football's Ivy League, long recognized by the public, will become a reality in 1956.

The announcement yesterday that the governing boards of the eight loosely associated Eastern colleges had approved a round-robin football schedule immediately brought up the question: What will be the effect on the East's other football-playing schools?

The round-robin schedule, which will require each Ivy team to play the other seven in the group, is expected to go into effect for the 1956 season—the first one for which schedules have not been drawn up. The change won't be too great, for most of the schools played five or six "league" games last season and both Princeton and Columbia had round-robin schedules in 1952.

Established In '45
But it will leave such other institutions as Army, Navy, Colgate, Syracuse, Holy Cross and Rutgers looking for some new opponents.

The Ivy League consists of Brown, Columbia, Cornell, Dartmouth, Harvard, Pennsylvania, Princeton and Yale. Since 1945, when the presidents of these schools first began to formalize the newspaper-created "league," they have been limited to a maximum of nine football games each season.

The agreement just approved is largely a reaffirmation and rewording of the principles first established in 1945 and added to in 1952. But it also includes approval of the principle of round-robin schedules in other sports, thus drawing the members more than ever into a tightly knit group.

In Other Sports Too
The eight Ivy schools compose the Eastern Intercollegiate Basketball League and they're all members, with a few others, of the baseball league, golf association and the heptagonal track association.

When news leaked out that the round-robin football schedule was contemplated, athletic directors of some other Eastern colleges began talking about forming a new conference or league. As far as can be learned, it still is in the talking stage, although Syracuse Athletic Director Lew Andreas recently said a new conference "could be formed this spring and would be in operation by 1956 or 1957."

CLAMORING FOR VEJAR-BLACK RETURN MATCH

CHICAGO (AP)—There was a clamoring today for a rematch between Chico Vejar and rookie Jed Black, scrappy young welterweights who made a smash hit in a brawling 10-round draw at Chicago Stadium last night.

But it might be quite a while before the pair can tear into each other again.

Pvt. Vejar returns to Army duty at Ft. Benning, Ga., after being out on a five-day pass. His manager, Steve Ellis, says he has another year to serve and any fight plans are indefinite.

Would Like Re-Match
Hec Knowles, pilot of Jed Black and also of Chuck Davey who twice defeated Vejar in 1952, says: "We would like a rematch—and in another month or so Black will knock Vejar out in three rounds."

Black, a former National Intercollegiate champion from Michigan State, showed that he could use more polish. But he put up a surprisingly good showing at a 2-1 underdog against the more experienced Vejar, ex-dramatic art student at New York University.

Black, the stronger puncher, buckled Vejar's knees with a long right in the first round. But Vejar withstood the shock and outlasted him for the next five rounds.

Just when it looked as if Black, matched for 10 rounds for only the second time in his career, was losing steam, he dropped Vejar with a left-right uppercut combination for a nine count in the seventh. The game Vejar got up and lasted the 20 seconds remaining before the bell.

Vejar Had Edge On Points
Only 2,695 fans turned out for the slam-bang battle, contributing to a gross gate of $7,042. It was televised nationally and each fighter got $4,000 from the TV proceeds.

The total points awarded by the three officials gave Vejar the edge, 280 to 274. The bout was scored under the new National Boxing Assn. system, requiring 10 points per round to the winner and any number under 10 to the loser.

G-BURG MERMEN WIN 4TH MEET

Jim Lentz's Gettysburg College swim team won its fourth meet in five starts by capturing a triangular affair with Swarthmore and Penn Military College Wednesday at Swarthmore.

The Bullets captured seven first places to pile up 52 points. Swarthmore was second with 31 and PMC trailed with 10.

Chet McLaughlin and Bryant Heston were double winners for Gettysburg. McLaughlin won the 200 freestyle in 2:29 and the 440 freestyle in 5:34.8. Heston took the 100 freestyle in 58.5 and diving with 81.9 points.

Other local wins were Jack Lipkin, backstroke, 2:52.4; Fred Hopkins, breaststroke, 2:54.8, and the 400 relay team, composed of Bob Eppelman, Ted Webster, Bob Gilchrist and Heston, 4:05.2.

Swarthmore won the 300 medley, 50 freestyle and 150 individual medley.

The Bullets will meet Delaware at Newark, Del., Saturday.

COEDS DEFEAT ELIZABETHTOWN

The Gettysburg College coeds' basketball team swept a pair of games from Elizabethtown College here Wednesday evening, the varsity opening its schedule with a 49-19 decision and the Jayvees winning their second straight 45-14.

B. Black and P. Luckenbill accounted for 22 and 13 points, respectively, for the Bullets while J. Hunsberger tabbed 11 for the visitors in the varsity affair.

Elizabethtown was limited to six goals by the strong Gettysburg defense.

A. Brown and A. VanArtsdalen each netted 15 points in the junior varsity triumph.

Next Tuesday the locals will play a twin bill at Shippensburg State Teachers College.

3 PROSPECTIVE NIT TEAMS WIN NEW LAURELS

By BEN PHLEGAR
NEW YORK (AP)—Three basketball teams which will probably ride bids to the National Invitation Tournament and one which would certainly like to join them offered freshened credentials today for the benefit of the selection committee.

La Salle, Dayton and Louisville, the three likely prospects, all won handily last night. So did St. Francis of Brooklyn, the wishful outsider.

Duquesne, the nation's second-ranking team, accepted an invitation yesterday and showed its skill last night in walloping helpless Carnegie Tech 86-40 for its 19th consecutive victory.

Temple Beaten
Western Kentucky already is in the tournament field.

La Salle did the selectors a double favor in beating Iona 82-69. It ran its own winning streak to 11 games in an 18-3 season and it cooled off the tournament claims of Iona, the tallest team in the New York area but not one usually considered for the NIT.

Dayton whipped Miami of Ohio 80-69, probably dumping Miami from consideration. The Flyers from Dayton have a 19-5 record.

Louisville trimmed Loyola of New Orleans 94-77, running its mark to 17-5. Both Louisville and Dayton have lost to Western Kentucky.

Cooled Off Iona Claims
St. Francis of Brooklyn, the best New York area team available for the NIT, defeated Temple 71-62. The Brooklyn school has won 17 of 20 including 10 in a row.

St. Francis' tournament chances figure to be slim despite its record because many New York observers felt it has not played a strong enough schedule.

Fordham, which could have a bid but doesn't want one, defeated Rutgers 69-58. The Rams undoubtedly will cast their lot with the NCAA as an at-large representative from the East.

Seminary Cagers Defeat Hampstead

The Lutheran Theological Seminary basketball team won its third game in four starts Wednesday evening by defeating Hampstead 45-36 on the latter's court.

Town Vault Broken, Officials Cart Funds

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP) — Two officials of the town of Milton soon may be able to stop taking their work home with them. An examiner for the state auditor has requested the town's mayor to have the city hall vault repaired immediately.

He said the vault has been "unusable and unused" since the building was constructed five years ago. "It has been necessary for the treasurer and collector to carry the town funds with them at all times — a dangerous and undesirable practice," the examiner declared.

Say Molotov Had To Laugh At His Own Plan For Peace In Europe; West Won't Bite

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Western foreign ministers have been waltzing in circles with the Russian bear. It has been a dull dance. Suddenly Russia tries to quicken the music to a foxtrot, with the bear playing the fox.

But this fox is as clumsy as the bear.

For almost three weeks Russia's Foreign Minister Molotov has been meeting in Berlin with the three Western ministers: the United States' Dulles, Britain's Eden, France's Bidault.

Like Men Recruiting Lines
There was no progress, nothing new. The four ministers acted like men recruiting lines they had long since memorized, as they had. Both sides took their positions again. They restated them at Berlin.

Then suddenly, in a change of pace, Molotov unveiled a new plan, Russian-style, which was the old plan really, but in fresh dressing: a plan for European peace. Reports from Berlin said at one point Molotov himself had to laugh at what he was saying.

What He Laughed At
This was his plan:

The United States would have to clear out of Europe. And her allies in the Atlantic Pact would have to give it up.

(Russia had been trying for years to get the United States out of Europe. And for years it had been trying to break up the Atlantic Pact under which the Allies pledge to help each other if Russia attacks one of them.)

With the Atlantic Pact out of the way, all the European countries would make a pact of their own, pledging to help one another in case of attack on any of them.

He Cut It Thinner

(But this would leave Russia and her satellites the military masters of the continent. The rest of Europe couldn't stop an attack without United States help if Russia broke the new pact.)

(In fact the West Europeans, without help from the United States couldn't even arm themselves well enough to stop a Russian attack now.)

This was a pretty thin plan. But Molotov cut it thinner. He would let East and West Germany unite, but in such a way that the German Communists could take over.

Handed It Right Back

There was more, but that gives a general idea of the plan Molotov dumped on the conference table. Dulles, Eden and Bidault picked it up and handed it back to him.

Although there has been no progress in the conference there has been an air of amiability about it which may seem to some a sign that over a long time maybe the two sides will get closer together.

There is another view: if both sides appear a little relaxed it's port in the absence of Mrs. Eugene R. Hartman, Mrs. Mark A. Eckert submitted the treasurer's report.

Mrs. Orem reported on the meeting of the South Central District in Harrisburg January 28. The executive committee, which met before the regular session, voted to give $1.65 on the Penny Art Fund. It represents one penny for each member. Books containing the revised constitutions and bylaws were distributed.

Mrs. Milton R. Tipton, chairman of gerontology, read a letter of thanks from the Adams County Home thanking the club for a gift of $30 to purchase ice cream for the guests at the home.

New members announced by Mrs. G. R. Larkin, dean of chairman, were Mrs. Paul L. Spangler and Mrs. Harold Reuning. Mrs. Lefever read a letter from Miss Mary Jane McCaffrey, secretary to Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, stating that the First Lady will not be present April 21, the day selected for the club to make a tour of the Executive Mansion.

Plans were made to hold a benefit card party in the American Legion ballroom Friday afternoon, February 26, at 2 o'clock. The proceeds will be sent to the Independence Hall Redecorating Fund, a National Federation project.

A Valentine tea was served from a table decorated with red carnations. Mrs. Clark S. Smith, hostess chairman, was assisted by Mrs. William Kuhn, Mrs. Violet Hill, Mrs. Gordon Webster, Mrs. Ross Myers and Mrs. Richard Wolff. Mrs. Philip P. Noble served as program chairman.

dictate the need for additional men.

In connection with emergency calls the rescue truck may be driven by any assigned driver and driving "should not hesitate to leave the station as quickly as possible. It is advisable to take along others to assist you, and if possible to have a station operator at the radio transmitter at the time you leave, or shortly thereafter. Keep contact with the transmitter and keep the radio operator advised of the progress of the emergency. If upon arrival at the scene you find it advisable to have more protection against possible fire, radio immediately an alarm of fire."

The chiefs noted "in answer to a fire alarm, all trucks, except the first out, will wait a moment or so for a load. The last truck out must wait until it appears that no more firemen are likely to arrive."

In their instructions the chiefs said "all drivers are considered to be authorized radio operators. It is not necessary for an assigned driver to possess a radio-telephone operator's license." Conversation on the radio should be confined to official business, but emergency private messages are considered official business.

Operators were instructed to report in as soon as they arrive, and to give details of the emergency as they become known. "If possible keep your mobile radio attended at all times. If this is not possible inform transmitter operator who are off the air temporarily." Each driver is to "report in" by radio upon arrival at the fire, and is to report changes of location and start of return to the fire house.

Asks Cooperation On Calls
Transmitter operators were instructed to seek proper information concerning the location of the emergency if the location has not been made definite when the trucks start their run. The information is to be relayed by radio while the trucks are enroute. The transmitter operator was instructed to notify WGET of location of emergencies signaled by the siren, and later give WGET details when available. They were instructed to notify state police of rural alarms, borough police of all alarms, report location to the gas and electric companies if needed, and report "hydrant hook-ups" to the water company. They were also instructed to caution mobile operators if language "gets out of line."

Jacobs noted: "The local telephone company in a spirit of community service operates the main fire siren and makes a limited number of pre-alarm telephone calls. This is not compulsory by law. If you are on the call list do not complain if you are not called every time. Operators will call you if your name is on the list if it is physically possible for them to do so. Do not abuse this privilege."

"The main station radio operator does not have time to make his necessary calls and answer the phone at the same time, especially during the first five minutes after trucks roll. Do not call in at this time. Either tune in WGET or drive to the engine house. Caution other firemen to do the same."

Add Two Members

Accepted as new members of the company were Lawrence Groat, 103 Hanover St., and Walter Johnson, 132 Chambersburg St.

Twelve fire police cap badges were purchased. The parade committee was asked to report next meeting on the cost of a new stand of colors. Francis Smith reported on the Veterans Firemen's dinner, Richard Cole on the ladies' night, Raymond Menges on the progress of the 91st anniversary celebration. Menges said one member, Francis Garlach, had already disposed of 50 books for the carnival. Chief Jacobs reported the parade committee will meet this evening and added that the Blue and Gray band will parade with the firemen this year under the same division of winnings as was the custom last year.

80 At Meeting

A letter from state officials informing the fire company that it is not required to pay state tax on articles purchased for company use was read.

A check from W. W. "Bill" Wood, one-time Gettysburg College coach and now chaplain at Sailors' Snug Harbor, Long Island, N. Y., was received along with a letter from Mr. Wood thanking the company for its services at a fire at Mr. Wood's property, near Seven Stars.

Named to the duty roster for March were Guy Foulk, Paul Fox, Donald Folkenroth, William Gallagher, William Gilbert and Francis Garlach.

President William G. Weaver presided at the meeting with about 80 attending.

166 Covered Bridges Remain On Pa. State Highway System

HARRISBURG—The old covered wooden bridges are slowly but steadily dwindling from the Pennsylvania State Highway System.

Latest count shows but 166 remaining on the entire 41,000-mile system, Secretary of Highways E. L. Schmidt announced today.

This is a decrease of nine during the year and with the considerable emphasis being placed on farm-to-market road improvements, plus the normal losses by fire and accident, a lesser total is indicated by the end of this year.

But it will be a great many years before they entirely vanish from the Pennsylvania scene.

Oldest In This County

Oldest covered bridge on the State Highway system of which the Department has a record is an Adams County bridge built in 1836. It crosses Conewago Creek on Legislative Route 01018 in Butler Township. Its 89-foot span carries three-ton loads. Second oldest is the Northampton County bridge across Hockanqua Creek on Legislative Route 48061 in Allen Township.

It was built in 1840 and after well over a century continues to carry four-ton loads on its 96-foot span.

Another old-timer of which the Department has the record is in Lehigh County. It is known as Borgarts bridge and extends 145 feet across the Little Lehigh on Legislative Route 39016 in Salisbury Township and Allentown. It was built in 1841 and continues to carry six-ton loads.

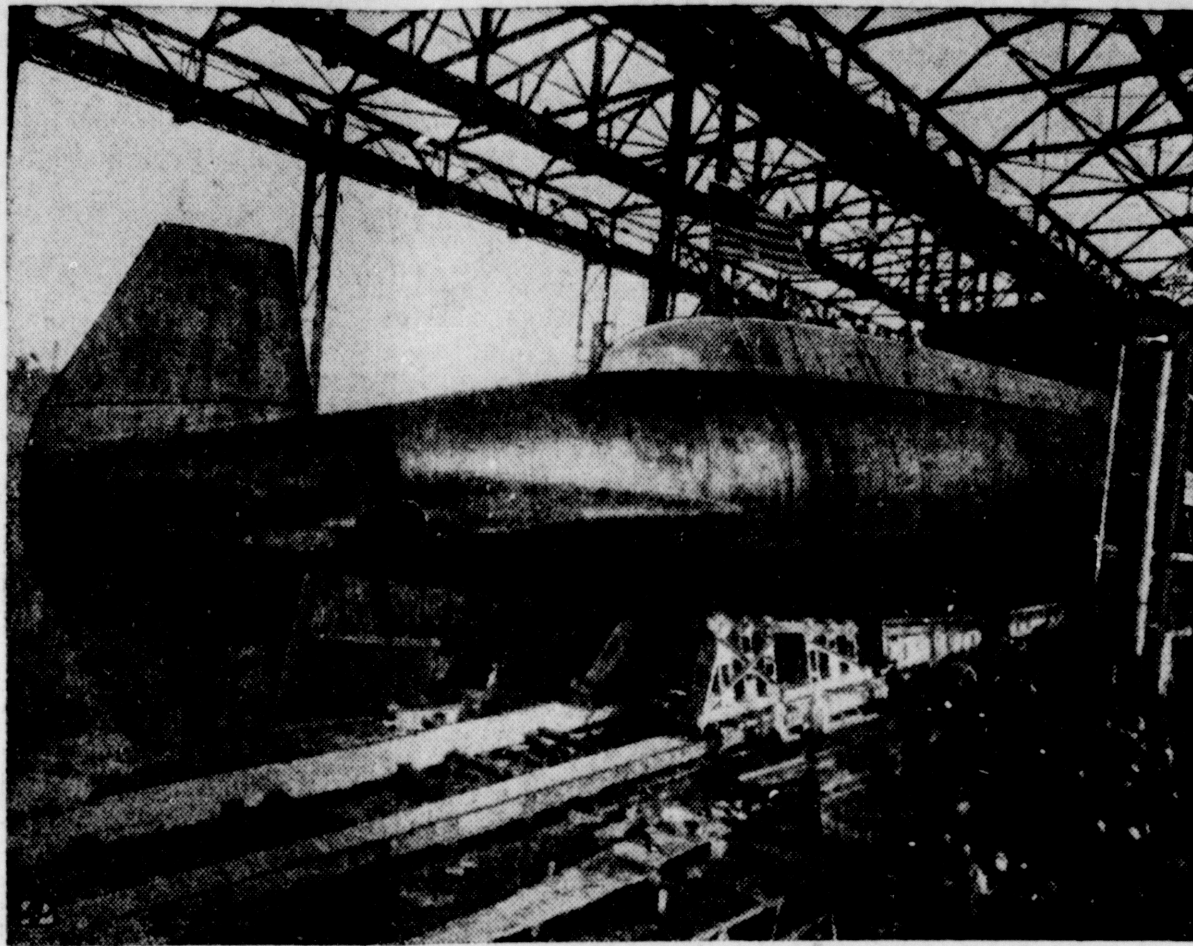

Two Built In 1932

There may be older bridges than these since the Highway Department has the historical records for only about one-half of its 166 covered bridges. The most recent covered bridges were built in the early part of this century. Bedford County reports three built in 1902. Snyder County had one built in 1907 and two were built in Green County in 1910. Although early half a century old these are the youngsters among the covered bridges. The Bedford County bridges are located on Leg. Rts. 06094, 06097 and 06114. They are across Shaffs Creek, the Juniata River and Brush Creek. The Snyder County bridge is across Mahantango Creek on Leg. Rt. 54002 in Perry Township. In Greene County they are across Chambers Run on Leg. Rt. 30002 in Aleppo Township and Coon Run on Leg. Rt. 30006 in Springhill Township.

Three of the covered bridges are posted for 15-ton weights. Two are across Sherman's Creek in Perry County, with one on Leg. Rt. 50009 in S. W. Madison Township and the other on Leg. Rt. 50010 in Tyrone Township. Both are two-span structures. The third 15-ton covered bridge is across Little Mahoning Creek in Indiana County on Leg. Rt. 32162 in Grant Township. It is a single 79-foot long span and was built in 1882.

Year of construction of the Perry County bridges is unknown. Likewise there are three others posted for 10-ton loads. One is in Conewago and Mt. Pleasant Townships in Adams County. It crosses the south branch of Conewago Creek via a 54-foot span on Leg. Rt. 01005. Cumberland County has the remaining two 10-ton bridges. One is a 134-foot span across the Yellow Breeches on Leg. Rt. 21023 between Lower Allentown

NEW SUBMARINE—Stern of U.S.S. Nautilus, world's first nuclear-powered vessel, extends above ways before christening by Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower at Groton, Conn.

Township and York County. The other crosses the Conodoguinet Creek on two 90-foot 6-inch spans on Leg. Rt. 21032 in North Mid-dletown Township.

But these must be considered the giants of the covered bridges for the others are capable of carrying weights of between one and four tons with a few going as high as nine tons.

Bedford and Greene Counties tie in the number of covered bridges on the State Highway System with 22 each. One in Bedford County is capable of carrying four tons but the remainder are about equally divided between two and three-ton maximum loads. According to Department records the oldest are two built in 1872. One is a 46-foot long span across Shaffer Creek on Leg. Rt. 05009 in E. and W. Providence Township and the other a 90-foot span across the Yellow Creek on Leg. Rt. 05059 in Hope-well Township. Greene County's oldest bridges (of which the Department has a record) are two built in 1870 across Black Horse Run on Leg. Rt. 30010 and the other across Toms Run on Leg. Rt. 30010, both in Gilmore Township.

The total number of covered bridges by other counties follows: Columbia, 19; Lancaster, 15; Adams, 13 with 10 more under county supervision; Washington, 11; Perry, nine; Cumberland, seven; Chester and Juniata, six each; Somerset and Bucks, five each; York and Dauphin, four each; Snyder and Berks, three each; Indiana, Lehigh, Sullivan and Erie, two each and Clinton, Lycoming, Northumberland and Northampton, one each.

Hence the old covered bridges are widely scattered throughout Pennsylvania so that no interested motorist should travel very far to see one of these prime examples of earlier day construction. There he can meditate on the age-old

Friends Build Home For Gritty Cripple

WICHITA, Kan. (P)—Fellow workers of Max Sissom at Boeing Airplane Company admire the grit of the Wichitan, who gets about by wheelchair, having been crippled since he was four.

When a windstorm bowled over the Sissoms' frame home, he telephoned he'd be late to work, looking for a place to live.

He got time off—and a husky crew of 50 volunteer workers who are building the Sissoms a new home.

N. Korean Food Crop Falls Short Of Needs

TOKYO (P)—The food situation in North Korea is so bad that in some cases the Communists have waived all taxes for some hungry peasants and told them they do not have to repay seed loans. This was disclosed in a recent Peiping broadcast, which quoted a dispatch from Pyongyang, the North Korean capital.

"The crops reaped by some peasants even fell short of their own needs," the broadcast said.

problem that never has been satisfactorily solved—were the bridges roofed to protect the floors and foundation timbers from the weather or were they covered so as to lead horses and oxen to believe they were entering a barn door toward a mow filled with hay?

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Card of Thanks 2

I wish to thank the doctors, nurses and friends for all their cards, flowers, gifts and kindness while I was a patient at the Warner Hospital.

MRS. GEORGE SWOPE

In Memoriam 3

In memory of our beloved son, Ronald, on his eleventh birthday, Feb. 10, who died Oct. 3, 1953. The sun shines upon a lonely grave. In it lies the son, I tried so hard to save.

Now it's always a lonely heartache. And many a silent tear.

Your trouble and pains are over. Your grief you often bore in silence. I see the things your hands have done. For me and others, before death had won.

Do not ask if I miss him. In my heart, no other can take his place.

Oh, I think I hear his footsteps. And see that winning grin upon his face.

No one knows the silent heartaches. In waking hours, he waits and talks with me.

In my dreams I hear him calling "Mom."

Yes, dear son, it won't be long, I'll come.

By his Mother
MRS. JACOB KAYSER

Washington News Letter

By Jane Eads

WASHINGTON (AP)—When the Republican's exclusive Capitol Hill Club was "doing over" the 150-year-old federal house it brought from former Congressman Charles Dewey (R-Ill.), workmen found a bone in the attic.

"It looked like the shin bone of a man," the club president, Rep. James C. Auchincloss of New Jersey, told me. "We wanted to be sure some one hadn't been murdered in the place, so we sent the bone over to researchers for study. We didn't want to be caught with our skeletons showing."

"They told us the bone came from the hind leg of an elk. Of course, it's just pure fantasy on my part, but I figured some Indian who came here on government business staked out one night in an upper room of the house had tored along the elk leg for his lunch. When he gnawed all the meat from the bone he tossed it into the rafters."

If you see Mrs. Oremum, wife of the former ambassador of Costa Rica—and one of the most beautiful women in Washington society—wistfully eyeing the floral decorations at a party, you might properly guess she's looking over a rose. The lovely lady eats roses.

"The petals are supposed to make one beautiful," she says. "I've been eating them ever since I was a little girl."

The Yugoslav Ambassador and Mrs. Popovic are giving a series of big formal dinners—one for the French Ambassador and Mrs. Bonnet, one for the British Ambassador and Lady Makins and one for the bachelor Ambassador Athanasios Politis of Greece.

Mrs. John Farr Simmons, wife of the chief of protocol of the State Department, collects recipes of the exotic dishes she savors on her exhaustive party-round of Embassy Row.

The other day at a ladies' tea given by Mrs. Farid Zeineddine, wife of the Syrian ambassador, she picked up a new one that ought to be easy to make. It's for "tabouleh," a popular Syrian delicacy. It's made of crushed wheat with finely chopped parsley, onions, tomatoes and mint leaves, all mixed together and moistened with lemon juice and olive oil.

East Berlin

EAST BERLIN—Dr. and Mrs. Richard Polts recently entertained his parents from Allentown.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Messinger and five children will arrive soon from Thomasville and will occupy the Anderson property, formerly tenanted by Mrs. Nancy Pissel, who has left to live with a daughter, Mrs. Harry Thoman.

A full course menu of turkey and home-prepared vegetables will be served by the women of the Zwingle Reformed Church Mite society at the annual Washington's Birthday supper at the church hall Saturday, February 20.

Jesse J. Hamme, Holtzschwamm area dairyman, was elected a director by the York County Guernsey Breeders Association at its annual meeting at Red Lion during the past week.

FIND OUT WHERE FARM KIDS GO

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. — What happens to the rural youth of Pennsylvania when they leave home?

Research workers of the Pennsylvania State University say that of 3,000 rural high school sophomores surveyed in 1947, 27 per cent had moved to urban areas by 1951. Girls, especially, tended to migrate toward the more urban areas.

The survey also showed that farm girls had greater success in finding husbands than did the girls who lived in villages. The village girls had higher occupational aspirations.

Most of the boys who did enter the urban labor force were claimed by blue collar jobs, but the boys who left the rural villages, rather than the farms, were more likely to hold white collar jobs. Less than half of the farm boys were farming or working as hired farm labor on their first job after leaving school.

Dr. Roy C. Buck, assistant professor of rural sociology at Penn State, and John H. Allen, research assistant, are continuing the study. To date, 2,000 of the original 3,000 youths surveyed have been located and the Penn State sociologists are attempting to trace the remaining 1,000 boys and girls who were included in the 1947 study.

LAOS INVADERS ADVANCE ALONG JUNGLE RIVER

By OLEN CLEMENTS

SAIGON, Indochina (P) — Ten thousand Vietnamese invaders of Laos advanced today to a point on the Hou River only 37 jungle miles northeast of Luang Prabang, the royal capital that the French and allied king Sisavong Vong have vowed to defend.

A vanguard of 1,500 regional troops was within nine miles or less of the town, screening the advance of the rebel regulars of Vietnam Division 308, but so far had not opened an attack.

The main force of the division, diverted last week from the siege of Dien Bien Phu for the thrust into Laos from north Viet Nam, had advanced 19 miles in 24 hours. At that pace, it was only two days' march from Luang Prabang.

Goal Not Certain

French Union briefing officers said the objective of the Communist-led forces had not been ascertained. The division was withdrawn from the mountains around Dien

Bien Phu, leaving others to maintain pressure, when the rebels found that stronghold heavily fortified by the French.

The garrison of Lang Prabang has been reinforced in the last few days. Military observers speculated that any assault might not come before early next week.

Aside from the palaces of the King and Crown Prince Savang, the town is a collection of frail wooden buildings and huts. It lies on the Mekong River. The Hou, on which the rebel division massed, flows into the Mekong north of the town. A jungle path leads 135 miles southward to Vientiane, the administrative capital of Laos.

Propaganda Material

Luang Prabang has little strategic value, but the Reds could make much propaganda in Southeast Asia if they could seize it and capture the King or his son.

In Saigon today, French Defense Minister Rene Pleven met with French Union leaders to study war needs in materials and additional manpower.

The French announced yesterday that 105 U.S. Air Force technicians had arrived last week to help maintain American-supplied planes "for civilian cargoes." Presumably these were in addition to 125 technicians previously reported helping the French in Indochina.

MALE DIGNITY PRESERVED

WINCHESTER, Mass. (P)—Boys in a third-grade painting class at Mystic Public School objected to wearing smocks because "we don't want to look like sissies." Their teachers encouraged the boys to wear "one of Daddy's old shirts."

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

CHARGE MENTAL PATIENT WITH DEATH OF PAIR

NEW YORK (P)—A Greenwich Village dishwasher—a former mental patient—has been charged with double homicide in the slaying of Maxwell Bodenheim and the poet-author's third wife, but police remain silent on the motive.

Captured yesterday about a mile from the slaying scene, 25-year-old Harold Weinberg at first told conflicting stories.

He first said he killed the 58-year-old Bodenheim, but the one-time literary great had killed his wife, the former Ruth Fagan, 35. Then he denied both killings. Then he said he killed Bodenheim because the latter raised a drunken row in his room. Once Weinberg said he tried to make love to the woman and Bodenheim fought him. And several times he repeated the phrase: "Maybe there was somebody under the bed."

After 10 hours of questioning, police announced last night that Weinberg had signed a written statement admitting both murders. He was smiling and unconcerned at his booking.

The bodies of the couple were found Sunday in a dingy lower East Side room rented by Weinberg. Bodenheim, a literary figure of the 1920s and early '30s, was shot to death. His wife's body bore numerous stab wounds. The couple apparently had been dead for 24 hours.

ALARM NOT NECESSARY

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (P)—Firemen stayed a respectable distance while fighting a fire in a truck marked with one word: "explosives." The owner arrived just before the fire was extinguished and told them the truck was empty.

Dillsburg

DILLSBURG—Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Bushey, Dillsburg, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Spruce Gentzler and Mr. and Mrs. John Gentzler, Thomasville, at their home recently. Drivers' licenses were restored recently to Charles S. Smith, Dillsburg R. 1, and also to Lester S. Walker, Wellsville R. 1.

Police Seek Women School Traffic Cops

BEVERLY, Mass. (P)—Police Chief Edward Aune wants six new special officers—all women—to handle school traffic.

He told Mayor Clarence S. Windson that he hasn't enough men to provide protection for children going to school.

Truck Driver Bags Ornamental Deer

REDLANDS, Calif. (P)—A Los Angeles truck driver bagged a deer in Colton, but didn't know it until on the outskirts of Redlands, 10 miles distant.

He stopped his truck when he was flagged and told it was on fire.

He then discovered the two wheels of his trailer were missing. Confused? So was H. T. Frantz, truck driver.

The wheels came off in Colton, shattering an ornamental iron deer and smashing through a window. The sagging trailer had rubbed a friction fire in its flooring and movie billboard posters inside were aflame.

Colton police caught up with him when he stopped and put out the blaze with a hand extinguisher.

REJECTION OF ROBERT YOUNG MAY OPEN UP RAIL BATTLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Rejection of Robert R. Young as a director and chairman of the board of the New York Central Railroad threatened today to touch off a wide-open battle for control of the vast rail system.

Young, who controls the railroad's largest individual stock holding, denounced the present Board of Directors after its action yesterday.

Up To Owners
In a statement from his Palm Beach, Fla., home, he declared: "The real issue is whether the owners of the properties are going to be made to continue to submit to a Morgan nonownership board with countless conflicting interests or whether they are to enjoy an ownership board with a strong board with a strong ownership in its chair. The New York Central owners, I am sure, on May 26 will give the right answer."

The railroad's annual meeting, at which all shares can be voted in an election for a new Board of Directors, is scheduled for May 26 in Albany, N.Y.

5-Hour Session
Young had requested that both he and his associate, Allan P. Kirby, be named to the board.

After a five-hour secret meeting, the directors announced:

"The board unanimously decided that it would be inimical to the best interest of the company to grant Mr. Young's request."

Made Himself Available
Young, 56, has long fought old-line railroad men and criticized many traditional railroad methods. He has advanced plans to win back business to the railroads by heavy advertising and promotion and new and better equipment.

For years he has sought a voice in running the New York Central. In 1947 he was invited to become a director, but the Interstate Commerce Commission barred him because he then was chairman of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad. The

"Dirty Trick" Say 3 Young Runaways

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Judy Eisen, 13, her sister Linda, 12, and Marian Dempsey, 13, all of Dayton, made up their minds to travel and gathered their total resources—$1. They were tired of baby-sitting and wanted to see the world they said.

They set out for "either Pennsylvania or West Virginia." They began hitchhiking and got as far as nearby Mt. Sterling without trouble.

Bayne Bernier, a Hartford, Conn. truck driver, picked them up and drove them to the Zanesville police station.

"He certainly did us a dirty trick," the youngsters told police.

JCC forbids interlocking directorates for the two railroads on grounds that they would cut competition.

Young made himself available for election to the Central board by resigning his post with the C&O last Jan. 19.

STICKY BUNS EASY TO MAKE

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE

Associated Press Food Editor
My family loves these sticky buns! I think yours will, too.

This good hot bread calls for easy-to-use biscuit mix plus cream for super richness. Dot the dough with spoons of the iron-rich molasses filling, then spread evenly and lightly, so you get just enough of the wonderful sweet goo in each bun. The even spreading helps when you come to roll and cut the dough.

I found the muffin pans whose wells each hold one-third cup a little small for these buns, because their filling tends to bubble over. So use a large-cup muffin pan.

Sticky Buns
Ingredients: 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, ½ cup sugar, ½ cup dark molasses, ½ cup currants (rinsed in hot water and drained and dried on a towel), ½ cup chopped walnuts, 3 cups prepared biscuit mix, 3 tablespoons sugar, ½ cup heavy cream, ½ cup milk.

Method: Melt butter in small saucepan; remove from heat and let pan cool. Mix in ½ cup sugar, molasses, currants and walnuts. Stir biscuit mix and 3 tablespoons sugar together in bowl. Mix cream and milk; stir into mix thoroughly with fork. Knead 10 times on floured board. Roll out to rectangle 16 by 10 by ¼ inches. Spoon molasses mixture over dough, spreading lightly and evenly. Roll up as for jelly roll, starting at longest edge. Cut into 12 equal slices. Place in 12 well buttered large muffin cups. Bake in moderate (375°F) oven 20 minutes. Let cool in pans about 3 minutes; loosen with spatula and remove. Scrape up any sticky filling in bottom of cups and spread on bottom of buns.

Speaker John C. Luber of the House of Delegates proposed upping the license fee from $3 to $5 to help make up a deficit in operations of Common Pleas Court. Marylanders still would get their license by putting up the traditional $2.

The bill would have no effect on marriage license fees at Elkton to the north of Baltimore,

Here's How:

Make Your Closet Bags With Gay Colored Denim

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

Every Woman dreams of having that perfectly appointed closet — hat boxes, garment bags, shoe bags — everything is in order. But sometimes the budget for these matching closet accessories will not permit it.

Well — why not make your own chic closet fashions?

Decide on your color scheme. If the closet is in your room be sure that closet and bedroom colors will harmonize. Denim in stripes and companion colors makes an attractive combination. You can paint the closet to match the stripe for more enchantment.

Here are simple directions prepared by local sewing center experts so that you may make these accessories without elaborate patterns:

Single Garment Bag

To cut back section: Lay dress hanger on fabric and draw shape of hanger across top with soft pencil. Extend shoulder line out and curve down for side lengths. Continue side line straight down for 50 inches. Allow 1/4-inch seam. Cut.

To cut front section: Fold cut out back section in half lengthwise to use as a pattern. Front is then cut in two sections, allowing 2 inches on each section at center.

Stitching procedure: Bind two center edges of front sections. Place flat on top of back section so that center fronts overlap. Bind back and front sections together, leaving 1/2 inch from center of top of garment bag. Repeat on other side. The 1-inch opening on top of bag for hanger hook should be bound by hand. Bind bottom edge.

Large Garment Bag

Top section is cut to fit hanger frame, allowing 1/2 inch for seam. Bottom section is cut to same measurement. The bag can be any length. If bands of contrasting trim are desired at top and bottom, cut to desired depth. Apply to top and bottom sections before stitching back, front and side sections together. Cut back, front and 2 side sections to correspond to top section and desired over-all length measurement. Allow 1/2-inch seam

Mint Offers Proof Coins To Collectors

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The United States Mint here is offering 91 cents worth of new, freshly minted American coins — for only $2.10. Sounds like a bad bargain? The mint has received 109,700 orders for the coins. They're proof coins and most of the purchasers are coin collectors. And they are good for speculation. Proof coins from 1952, for instance, are currently worth $5 a set in some mediums of exchange.

on all four sides. Cut one side section in half lengthwise for insertion of slide fastener allowing about 3/4 inch insertion. Use zipper foot machine attachment to make quick work of fastener insertion. Use three metal grommet eyelets to finish top for hanger to go through.

Shoe Bag

Cut a piece of solid color denim 36 inches long and 18 inches wide. Cut three crosswise strips of companion color stripes 40 inches wide and 9 inches deep. (Piece, if necessary.) Cut another strip of striped fabric 18 inches long and 3 inches wide, turn under 1/2 inch on one edge and top stitch to top of large section. Bind top edges of the three 40 inch fabric strips with solid bias binding. Measure each strip into 4 even sections and mark with pins.

Measure the large back piece section into 4 lengthwise sections and mark each with chalk to indicate where strips are to be placed. Now lay one strip of striped fabric along bottom. Space other two rows equally apart. Stitch strips to large section along each edge and on each dividing line. The fullness of each strip section is taken up in pleats at the bottom. Stitch across lower edge of each strip and finish with bias strip covering raw bottom edges of each strip and first row of stitching. Finish by binding raw sides and top edges. Use metal grommet eyelets across top to hold large head tacks for securing the shoe bag to door or wall.

Hat Box Accessory

Cut fabric circumference of a cardboard hat box allowing 1 inch for seam and 2 inches extra width than the depth of the box to allow for 1 1/2 inches turn inside of box and 1/2 inch seam on bottom.

Cut top and bottom sections of hat box by placing box on wrong side of fabric and drawing around. Allow 1/2 inch for seam. Cut. Cut strip for side of lid 1 1/2 inches wider than depth of lid (to allow for turn in and seam) and 1 inch wider than circumference for seams.

After sections are stitched together and placed on hat box, fasten turned in edges securely with rubber cement.

Shelf Edging

Shelf edges are finished with a pleated ruffle. Cut ruffle about 2 1/2 times the length of your shelf, to desired width. Bind one edge using the multi-slotted binder attachment for your sewing machine. Pleat. Bind other edge.

Halt Hara-Kiri Try Of Despondent Jap

TOKYO (AP)—A startled priest of the Sengakuji Buddhist Temple recently restrained a despondent man about to commit hara-kiri at the grave of the famed 47 Samurai who disemboweled themselves there in 1702 after killing the mortal enemy of their dead lord.

The unsuccessful imitator told police he had come up to Tokyo to start a new business with $1,550.

carry to court refusals of children to support aged and indigent parents.

In one court action, a woman was required to contribute $16 weekly to the support of her mother and her sister was compelled to contribute $8.66 weekly.

Threats of like action have permitted the county to eliminate 50 assistance cases and reduce the amounts paid in 200 others.

But he spent it all on Tokyo girls. The temple is famous throughout Japan for the memory of the 47 heroes who defied incredible hardships to carry their dead master's feud to a bloody conclusion. Condemned to death for breaking the peace, they were allowed to commit suicide as a mark of honor to their feudal devotion. Kneeling in the temple grounds, they stoically killed themselves one after the other in order of rank.

Candles, coated with soapsuds, are said to burn without smoking or dripping. Don't coat the wicks, of course, and let the candles dry in candle-holders before lighting.

CHAMBERSBURG MAN CHARGED IN WIFE'S DEATH

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (P)—William Kennedy, an unemployed laborer recently released from jail after serving time for breaking into the home of his estranged wife, was held by police today in her slaying.

Mrs. Alice Kennedy, 30, mother of three boys by a previous marriage, was found shot to death in her home last night shortly after witnesses saw Kennedy enter the house carrying a gun.

Kennedy, 41, was paroled Feb. 1 from Franklin County jail after serving a sentence on a charge of breaking into his wife's home last November.

Arrested At Tavern
One of Mrs. Kennedy's sons, David, 13, told police he saw Kennedy come up the steps on the house with a gun in hand and that he later ran into Kennedy in a hallway as Kennedy fled from the house.

Kennedy was arrested at a tavern five blocks from the scene of the shooting shortly afterward. Patrolman William Chase said Kennedy told him, while being taken to jail, "I shot her and I hope she's dead."

H. S. Byers, Chambersburg police chief, said a .22 caliber revolver and box of shells was found in Kennedy's possession. He added that six bullet wounds in the arm, shoulder, hand, and eye were discovered on Mrs. Kennedy's body.

FINE AWAITING CHANCE TO END TRANSIT STRIKE

HARRISBURG (P)—Gov. John S. Fine held himself in readiness today for conferences seeking to avert a city-wide bus strike in Harrisburg.

Some 265 union drivers of the Harrisburg Railways Co. put off a strike they had called for last Monday after the governor requested further conferences.

However, Fine did not intervene in a similar strike situation of 82 drivers and shopmen of the Valley Transportation Co. and that strike, involving bus service between Harrisburg and a dozen West Shore communities across the Susquehanna River, went into effect Tuesday.

Want More Money
Car pools and "courtesy cars" operated by the striking drivers have provided transportation since to the West Shore communities which have a population of 40,000. Harrisburg has a population of 90,000.

Demands of increased wages are involved in both the west shore and Harrisburg bus strike situations. "I'll be holding myself in readiness if either side wants to talk with me," Gov. Fine said yesterday in his return from a Florida vacation.

M. Herbert Syme, counsel for the AFL union representing the bus drivers in both wage disputes, said he impressed upon the governor "the urgency in this situation."

He noted that the Harrisburg bus strike was held off at the governor's request but said the situation couldn't continue indefinitely.

SEEKS MURDER INDICTMENT

LEVITTOWN, Pa. (P)—Dist. Atty. Donald van Arsdale says he will seek a first degree murder indictment against George Capps, 22-year-old neighbor of slain Marta Gibbons.

The 15-year-old girl's stepfather, William Gourley, attacked Capps with his fists last night during argument proceedings.

Capps' court-appointed attorneys stepped in to prevent further trouble after Gourley had struck Capps and knocked him back against a wall. The slain girl's mother, who had been confined to a hospital when Marta was slain, attended the hearing and sobbed intermittently.

Van Arsdale said he would seek his indictment from the Bucks County grand jury that convenes March 8.

In last night's hearing, Justice of the Peace John Melvin ordered Capps held without bail for action by the grand jury.

State police testified that Capps told them he shot the girl when she became hysterical after they had been intimate. The slaying took place on the night of Jan. 22 and Marta's body was found Jan. 25 near Lake Curtis.

Police said at that time that the girl had been criminally assaulted before she was shot.

SINCLAIR TO EXPAND
CHESTER, Pa. (P)—Sinclair Oil Corp. has announced plans for a 15-million dollar expansion at its nearby Marcus Hook refinery, beginning in the first quarter of 1955.

The program will enable Sinclair to produce para-xylene and other aromatic chemicals at the refinery along the Delaware River, a spokesman said. The unit will have a capacity of 10-million pounds annually, he added.

It is doubtful whether whales have a sense of smell.

Young Talent Scout Is Found Murdered

LOS ANGELES (P)—The body of a handsome young movie talent scout, bound hand and foot, was discovered last night in the bedroom of his suburban Sherman Oaks home where he lived alone.

Police said the victim, identified as David L. Johnston, about 30, had been bludgeoned with a piece of fire wood. Police Lt. E. W. Smith said the house was "a shambles," with trails of blood indicating that Johnston had put up a fight before he was slain.

Detecup a fight before he was slain.

SAYS PROGRAM FOR DELAWARE RIVER BLOCKED

WILMINGTON, Del. (P)—The chairman of the Interstate Commission on the Delaware River Basin said yesterday that "lack of understanding and disregard for broad public interests in Pennsylvania" has blocked the commission's program for use of Delaware River water.

In a speech before the Wilmington Kiwanis Club, Chairman Francis A. Pitkin said also that negotiators representing Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York have "virtually ignored the state of Delaware" in arriving at a proposed settlement on how the river water shall be allocated.

Seek Court Approval
An agreement among the three states is to be presented to the U. S. Supreme Court for approval. Pitkin told the Delaware group that "unless you of Delaware do something about it, it probably means that the Supreme Court will not have the benefit of the whole picture in deciding the issue before it."

The four-state commission, widely known as Incodel, has advocated allocating 240 million gallons of water per day from the Delaware River to New York City. Its program also provides 225 million gallons daily to northeastern New Jersey and maintaining a minimum flow of 3,000 million gallons daily in the river at Trenton, N. J.

Incodel proposes to control the flow of water by erection of a series of dams both in the headwaters and on the river itself, and to divert New York City's share through an aqueduct.

Charcoal will absorb far more than its own volume of a gas.

FIREMEN HOLD "FAMILY NIGHT"

One hundred twenty-five attended the annual Family Night program held Wednesday evening by the Barlow Fire Co.

President Albert Ferner welcomed the family groups present. Fire Chief Bernard Miller served as master of ceremonies. Ervin Houck, Hanover, presented motion pictures on "What to Do When Fire Strikes the Home."

Details of life in the southeastern desert area of Arizona were given by Dr. Max Hensley of the Gettysburg College staff, who illustrated his talk with slides.

He showed and described reptile and animal life of the desert and concluded his talk by displaying two snakes. Following the meeting most of the many children present took advantage of an invitation to handle the reptiles.

The "Sedgewick Strings," Charles Tressler, Gerald Miller, Kermit Tressler and Mrs. Roy Heintzleman, entertained with musical numbers while refreshments were served.

Farm Family Finds Bovine Lamp-Lighter

HALSTEAD, Kans. (P)—Farmer Art Wedel's barn lights kept coming on—and members of the family got tired of being blamed for forgetting to switch them off. So one member of the family watched while the others drove away.

A 2-month-old Hereford calf, mistaking the knob on the toggle switch for a nipple, was nudging the lights on.

SOLON SEEKING U. S. CONTROL ON COFFEE TRADE

By EDWIN B. HAARINSON
WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Angell (R-Ore) said today he will ask early House action on a bill to impose government controls over speculation and futures trading in coffee.

Without a record vote or debate, the Senate voiced approval of the measure yesterday, apparently reflecting nationwide concern over recent increases in coffee prices.

Angell said he believes government regulation "would control any skulduggery or price fixing in coffee."

Chairman Hope (R-Kan) said the House Agriculture Committee probably would consider the coffee controls measure during the next week.

The legislation will not halt two current investigations into causes for the recent jump in coffee prices.

One is by a Senate Banking subcommittee headed by Sen. Beall (R-MD), who supports the controls. The other is by the Federal Trade Commission.

Asks Cooperation
The coffee and sugar exchange in New York asked its members yesterday to cooperate with the Beall subcommittee by providing lists of traders and information on transactions. Beall had asked the exchange for the information and said the group would issue subpoenas for it if necessary.

Hope said his committee probably would hold brief hearings if coffee traders or other interested parties ask for them.

Angell said his bill is identical to one sponsored by Sen. Gillette (D-Iowa) and approved by the Senate.

It would add coffee to a list of some 20 other food and farm products in which trading is supervised by the Commodity Exchange Authority, under the Agriculture Department.

Exchanges, commission merchants and floor brokers dealing in coffee futures contracts would be required to register and the CEA could prevent "such undesirable practices as manipulations and corners."

1953 DEATHS IN PITS LESS THAN PREVIOUS YEAR

HARRISBURG (AP)—Accidents in Pennsylvania hard and soft coal mines last year claimed 28 fewer lives than in 1952, the Mines Department reports.

A sizable decrease in hard coal fatal accidents offset a slight increase in the number of workers killed in the soft coal regions, the statistics show.

A total of 126 lives were lost in anthracite and bituminous coal mine accidents with 62 fatalities in the soft and 59 in the hard coal operations.

Figures for 1952 set the hard coal fatal accident total at 92 and the soft coal industry at 62.

Last year fewer miners were killed per tonnage of hard coal mined than in 1952 and more lost their lives on the same ratio basis in soft coal operations.

"Better cooperation among mine owners, workers and mines department in safety matters last year played an important part in lessening the total number of accidents," said Mines Secretary W. J. Clements.

However, Clements added, "production must be considered in both the hard coal fatal accident decrease and the soft coal increase."

Island Fever Leads To Travel Assignment

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Three years ago Buddy (Kekilapuale) Young came to Kansas City from his native Hawaii to attend school. While attending the University of Kansas City he got lonesome for Hawaii and returned to the Islands.

Soon after his return, he began to long for Kansas City. Back he came, got a job and enrolled again at the university. He graduated in 1952 and then went back to Hawaii. Yes, he got lonesome again for Kansas City and came back. He decided he never would be able to make a final choice. Young found a job with a travel agency here and conducts tours to Hawaii four times a year.
